25 June 1963

MEMORANDUM FOR: Executive Director

SUBJECT: Recently Recruited Scientific and Technical Personnel

1. The attached papers provide a listing of scientific and technical professional personnel who have come on duty with the three offices of the DD/R since September 1962. This listing does not include personnel transferred from other components of CIA. In addition to the officers listed, there have been approximately ten electronic technicians ranging in grade from GS-6 through GS-10. These technicians, while frequently very competent in many applied phases of electronics, have not been rated as engineers and are used primarily in monitoring and data readout operations.

2. There have been only two new consultants officially employed and copies of memoranda requesting their employment in May of 1963 are attached. It may be worth noting, however, that the DD/R has had the benefit of additional consulting service from other governmental officials and non-governmental who have been personally known to Dr. Scoville and other senior DD/R officials. This has been particularly true of scientists who have been associated with the Office of the Science Advisor to the President and served on various councils and committees for the White House. Still other such assistance has been available through contractor organizations and the Staff and Board of Trustees of the [REDACTED]

3. In addition to the new employees listed in the attachments, there are at the present time approximately thirty scientists and engineers in various stages of process, approximately one-third of which we estimate will EOD.
